

Mr. Gressett's
Rules and Regulations
Virtual Classroom

1. All students will be on line, on time, in dress code, and prepared with materials such as paper, pencil, notes, & textbook if needed.
2. All on line sessions or meetings will be with picture in person, and mics muted, except when a discussion is needed. All questions will be answered.
3. Notes will be available on a daily basis. These will either be written out with lots of examples or a video of the lesson. These will be available before our virtual meetings to allow you to have time to look over and have your questions ready to discuss.
4. Assignments will be posted daily and will be completed by you and turned in to Google Classroom by the due time. You must show all your own work for full credit. Every assignment will be graded in some manner. The correct answers will be posted once assignment is graded for you to review and check over your work. This is worth 20% of your grade.
5. Warm-Ups will be done each week. These are done during the class meetings and due by the end of each week. This will be a daily grade.
6. Late work is not accepted without proper excuse. A 20% grade reduction will take place for late work.
7. A quiz will be given periodically. Some will be known ahead of time, others not. All will be taken during the class video meetings and turned in immediately. This is worth 20% of your grade
8. Chapter Exams will be given at the end of a unit and after a review is completed. The exams will also be during an in class video meeting. This is worth 35% of your grade.
9. A quarter Exam will be given at the end of each quarter. It will also be done during a video meeting. This is worth 25% of your grade.
10. No one, under any circumstances, will disrupt the class to the point of hindering or not permitting anyone from learning.
